

Shopping in Vienna

The main shopping areas in Vienna's historic city center are Kärntner Strasse, Graben, Kohlmarkt, and the Goldenes Quartier on Tuchlauben. Exclusive stores representing some of the world's biggest international fashion and jewelry brands can be found here, side by side with traditional Viennese boutiques. Outside the first district, Mariahilfer Strasse is the capital's top shopping hotspot – the stores lining the side streets off the main drag are also worth a look. Generally speaking, the stores on Vienna's shopping streets are open Monday to Friday from 09:00 to 18:30 and from 09:00 to 17:00 or 18:00 on Saturday. Shopping centres do not close until 20:00 on Thursdays and Fridays.

Tips for an unforgettable trip to Vienna

© WIEN TOURISMUS/PAUL BAUER

City Walk I

Starting at the Vienna State Opera 1 walk along Kärntner Strasse until you reach the capital's best-known landmark, St. Stephen's Cathedral 2. Do not miss: the Mozarthaus Vienna 3. Next, head for the imperial Hofburg 4 via Graben and Kohlmarkt. Cross Heldenplatz and pause to admire the views of the Parliament building and City Hall. Go through the Burgtor towards the Kunsthistorisches Museum 5 and the MuseumsQuartier 6 which contains the Leopold Museum, Kunsthalle Wien, and mumok – museum of modern art. Continue downhill along Getreidemarkt towards the golden dome of the Secession 7 building. Take the underpass leading through Karlsplatz underground station passing the Künstlerhaus en route to the Musikverein 8, home of the Vienna Philharmonic. From here you can see the Baroque Karlskirche (Church of St. Charles) 9 church with its striking dome (on the other side of the road). Now proceed along Lothringerstrasse, past the Konzerthaus 10, bound for Stadtpark with the Kursalon and the golden Johann Strauss Monument 11. Then cross the Ring to Seilerstätte and the House of Music 12. Finally walk back towards Kärntner Strasse, passing Tourist Info Vienna on your way to the Albertina 13.

City Walk II

Starting at Burggarten 14, walk past the imperial Hofburg towards Heldenplatz 15. On the other side of the Ringstrasse from the Volksgarten – where Sisi fans will find a Jugendstil (Austrian Art Nouveau) monument to the Empress – is the Parliament 16 building, with the Pallas Athene fountain in front of it. The shaded Rathauspark 17 is a relaxing place to take a break with its fountains, statues, and exotic trees. Across the Ringstrasse from City Hall is the Burgtheater 18 – one of the leading theaters in the German-speaking world. From there it's worth taking a look at the nearby Minoritenkirche 19 church, where you will find a giant mosaic copy of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper that was commissioned by Napoleon Bonaparte. Walk along Freyung, at one time home to street entertainers and brash market traders, until you reach Am Hof 20 – one of the most architecturally significant sites in the whole of the old town. Excavation works for an underground garage beneath the square in the 1960s turned up the remains of a Roman settlement here. The most striking building on Am Hof is the Kirche Zu den neun Chören der Engel, a beautiful Gothic church with a Baroque façade. Via Judenplatz 21, designated as a place of remembrance (holocaust memorial, excavations of the medieval synagogue, museum on Jewish life in the Middle Ages), you will reach Hoher Markt 22 with the famous Anker Clock (figures parade at noon each day). Then proceed to the area around the Ruprechtskirche church known locally as the Bermuda Triangle 23, one of the Vienna's most popular places to go out. Lose yourself in one of the countless bars and restaurants! Just a few steps from the Bermuda Triangle, Rotenturmstrasse leads to Vienna's best-known landmark, the Gothic St. Stephen's Cathedral 24. Any questions? Then head down Kärntnerstrasse, past the stores and traditional boutiques on the way to Tourist Info Vienna 25 on Albertinaplatz.
